Certifications, Partnerships, & Successes

- The OSDH and the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) in August 2015, combining efforts to protect the public's health. Adapting from the concept of herd immunity, the primary purpose of this inter-jurisdictional collaboration is to increase the number of tribal and non-tribal community residents (children, adults, and seniors) within the 11 tribal jurisdiction counties of Choctaw Nation who received a flu vaccination between September 2015 thru May 2016.
- Choctaw Nation purchased 30,000 does of flu vaccine & distributed vaccines to the local county health departments in the 11 counties
- ▶ OSDH provided nursing & office staff and supplies to administer the vaccines
- Both agencies recorded information in OSIS and advertised outreach in the community.

Certifications, Partnerships, & Successes

- ▶ Extended to businesses, community centers, & community events
- ▶ Shortened paperwork to reduce burden of documentation for individuals
- As a result of this collaboration and proactive strategies, the OSDH was able to administered 23,987 doses of flu vaccines to community residents within the 11 counties between Sept 2015 to Feb 2016, compared to only 9,537 doses during the same time period in 2014-2015
