

■ FELONY
 Alfred Frank Flax, Cherokee, has been charged with two counts of distribution of controlled dangerous substance including possession with intent to distribute.

■ COUNTY TRAFFIC
 Charged with failure to wear seatbelt, $20: Matthew Ray Lansford-Barela, Cushing; Jake

R. M. Scott, Enid; Oscar Gonzales, Oklahoma City.

Charged with speeding 1-10 mph over the speed limit, $100: Sandra Jean De La Rosa, Stillwater; Brianna Leial Oha Wisby, Glenpool; Heather Kay Coverdell, Ponca City; Kaigan Trey Garis, Garber; Darrell L. Shelton, Alva; Damien Delbert Ramirez, Cherokee; Cody Dean

Darling, Lamont; Dakota J. Harrison, Enid; Gustavo Angel Martinez, Enid; Olive Annalouisa McClean, Farmers Branch, Texas.

Charged with speeding 11-14 mph over the speed limit, $264: Oscar Gonzales, Oklahoma City

Charged with speeding 15 mph over the speed limit, $264: William Lee Hewitt; Hamilton

Ernesto Jos Cu Ical, Las Vegas, Nevada.

Charged with failure to reduce speed when lawfully required, $249: Robert Rochell Chattam, Enid.

Charged with failure to carry insurance verification, $269: Autumn Mae Lynn Bradford, Cherokee.

■ SMALL CLAIMS

Burlington Cooperative Association has sued Richard M. King, Cherokee, for small claims.

■ PATERNITY
 State of Oklahoma has sued Joseph Allen Keller, Fairview, and Bridget Renea Bebee, Alva, for custody.

State of Oklahoma has sued Thomas Zeek Harper, Tucson,

Ariz., and Bridget Renea Bebee, Alva.

■ CIVIL OVER $10,000
 Todd Scribner, Tulsa, has sued Neal Scribner for breach of contract.

■ CHILD SUPPORT
 County of San Joaquin has sued Damian Christopher Roy Rieken, Jet, for income assignment.

Alfalfa County 911 Report

FEBRUARY 3

1:03 p.m. – Reporting party advised he wanted to report a gun was stolen out of his vehicle in town. Cherokee officer was advised.

1:39 p.m. – Cherokee officer advised he was leading an escort from the First Christian church to the Cherokee Cemetery. 1:45 p.m. Cherokee officer advised he was clear the escort.

3:03 p.m. – 911 call, reporting party advised an ambulance was needed for a female who had passed out. The female was awake, but she was wanting an ambulance. Cherokee ambulance was advised. 3:28 p.m. Cherokee ambulance advised they were not transporting and heading back to the station. 3:33 p.m. Cherokee ambulance advised they were back at the station.

5:07 p.m. – Reporting party advised some time the night before someone stole his truck and tractor batteries. He had driven the truck the day before, so it had to be some time the night before. Deputy was advised.

Animal calls1
 Transport1
 Traffic2
 Papers served0
 Controlled burn0

FEBRUARY 4

11:00 a.m. – Reporting party advised their son left school and was last seen at ACB Bank with a black motorcycle, charcoal helmet and black leather. Undersheriff was advised and advised he saw him 10 minutes ago pushing the motorcycle. Cherokee officer advised he was out with the individual.

2:06 p.m. – Department of Human Services advised they need police assistance at two locations. Cherokee officer was advised.

3:43 p.m. – Reporting party advised his 16-year-old daughter was missing. The last time he saw her was when he dropped her off at school. They talked with her boyfriend and she wasn't with him. Cherokee officer was advised. 3:47 p.m. Reporting party advised he had found his daughter. Cherokee officer was advised.

6:00 p.m. – 911 call, reporting party advised his dad had been beating on his mother and him. He has a baseball bat and is making threats. He has hit the reporting party several times. He thinks the dad is taking too much medicine or drinking too much. He is also calling him several names. Deputy was advised. 6:05 p.m. Dispatch could hear screaming and yelling, the subject kept calling the reporting party names. Reporting party kept calling the dad a wife beater and he is cheating on his mother. Deputy advised he wanted the reporting party to leave. The reporting party refused to leave without his mom and his mom wouldn't leave. 6:16 p.m. Reporting party advised the subject had a bat and was afraid he was going to hit someone or smash the house up with it. 6:20 p.m. The subject continued to make threats and call the reporting party names. He had pushed the reporting party into a girlfriend. 6:23 p.m. Reporting party advised they wanted to know when law enforcement was going to get there. The mother could be heard yelling for the dad to stop. 6:24 p.m. Deputy was advised they were fighting. 6:25 p.m. Reporting party advised his nose was bleeding, but he didn't need any medical. He called the dad a wife beater and cheater. 6:35 p.m. Deputy advised the two parties are separated. 8:11 p.m. Deputy advised everything is okay, they are packing up to separate. 9:10 p.m. Deputy advised the lethality screen was done on the victim and the parties are separated.

9:18 p.m. – 911 call, reporting party advised she was coming into Helena taking her 15-year-old daughter to the emergency room. Her daughter was having chest pains and trouble breathing. Her daughter recently had surgery on her foot two weeks prior. They were going to the ambulance barn. Helena ambulance was advised. 9:37 p.m. Helena ambulance advised they were enroute to the hospital. 11:18 p.m. Helena ambulance advised they were back at the station.

Animal calls0
 Transport0
 Traffic2
 Papers served0
 Controlled burn0

FEBRUARY 5

8:20 a.m. – Reporting party advised he slid off the road in his truck and hit an electrical pole. Reporting party advised he was not hurt, but there was damage to his vehicle and it was not drivable. Oklahoma Highway Patrol was advised. Dispatch called reporting party back to advise that Oklahoma Highway Patrol was enroute. The reporting party advised the airbags did deploy. Dispatch advised they had to send an ambulance and fire department due to the airbags deploying. Helena ambulance and Goltry Fire Department were advised. 8:46 a.m. Goltry Fire Department advised to cancel the ambulance. Helena ambulance was advised. 8:50 a.m. Alfalfa Electric Cooperative was advised a pole was struck. 9:00 a.m. Oklahoma Highway Patrol advised they needed to know when the next court appearance date was. Dispatch advised of the information. 9:03 a.m. Helena ambulance advised they were back at the station. 9:07 a.m. Goltry Fire Department advised the scene was clear and they were headed back to the station. 9:15 a.m. Goltry Fire Department advised they were back at the station.

2:12 p.m. – Department of Human Services advised they needed radio logs from June 2019 to February 2020 on two individuals. Dispatch advised no logs found. Department of Human Services advised any police reports on the same two individuals for the same dates. Cherokee officer was advised.

6:52 a.m. – Reporting party advised there is a smell of chemicals or burnt rubber in the area. She left the dogs out and they smell like the odor. She didn't know for sure what it was. Deputy and Nescatunga Fire Chief were advised. 7:17 a.m. Nescatunga Fire Chief advised he wanted to talk to the deputy, he thinks someone could have burnt trash in a fireplace or got hold of some bad firewood. He also wanted to know how far out the deputy was. Deputy was advised and advised to have Nescatunga Fire Chief to meet him at a location. Nescatunga Fire Chief was advised. 7:39 a.m. Deputy advised everything was okay.

9:35 a.m. – Reporting party advised she needed to talk to the sheriff about a scam. She advised she has read about it and talked to a lawyer about it and she wants to compare phone logs. Reporting party advised Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics took money out of her account to buy drugs. She got a message and the drug dealer got these messages. She would never accuse the Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics of stealing money from her bank account. She needed to talk to the sheriff. Undersheriff was advised and advised for her to go to the police department. 12:34 p.m. Second reporting party called wanted to be sure that she was on a recorded line that she never accused Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics of stealing money out of her account. She has no money and she doesn't want it in the system that she called to say otherwise. Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics wasn't stealing money out of her account.

10:25 a.m. – Reporting party advised they wanted to speak to administrative assistant or undersheriff. Undersheriff was advised.

2:36 p.m. – Reporting party advised the water will be shut off for a period of time. 3:32 p.m. Reporting party advised the water had been restored.

5:23 p.m. – Reporting party advised of a red Toyota Tacoma passing cars recklessly, speeding and going all over the road. It was headed north on Highway 8. Deputy was advised. 5:27 p.m. Reporting party advised the subject was turning on Highway 45 east towards Helena.

6:50 p.m. – 911 call, reporting party advised an ambulance was needed for a female who was having a seizure. Cherokee ambulance was advised. 7:25 p.m. Cherokee ambulance advised they were back at the station.

8:06 a.m. – Reporting party advised they wanted to meet with Cherokee officer. Cherokee officer was advised.

8:55 a.m. – Reporting party advised they wanted to see if the Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics agent was there. Dispatch asked if they could take a message and when the person was asked their name, they laughed and hung-up.

9:42 a.m. – Reporting party advised they wanted to know about someone who applied for a job at their facility. Sheriff was advised.

10:26 a.m. – Reporting party advised she kept receiving calls from people advising her to call Alfalfa County. She wanted to help, she needed to fix a report and wanted to talk to sheriff.

11:12 a.m. – Reporting party advised she knew Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics agent was going to be mad, but his name kept coming up. Reporting party advised she didn't know what was going on, all kinds of crazy stuff. Dispatch advised to call local authorities and show them the text and give them the information.

11:25 a.m. – 911 call by mistake. Reporting party advised all was okay.

1:01 p.m. – Reporting party advised of a 2000s black Chevrolet Cobalt running people off the road. Oklahoma Highway Patrol was advised. 1:24 p.m. Oklahoma Highway Patrol advised a trooper caught up with the vehicle. Deputy was advised. Oklahoma Highway Patrol Trooper advised the driver was inattentive driving and the trooper spoke with him.

1:17 p.m. – 911 call by mistake. 1:51 p.m. – Oklahoma Highway Patrol advised of a blue or black Ford Explorer that was driving reckless. Deputy was advised.

2:16 p.m. – Reporting party advised of a stolen low boy trailer that had a load of pipe on the trailer. Her husband found the pipe in Grant County and doesn't want to go on the property until a deputy gets there.

Deputy was advised.

2:23 p.m. – Alarm company advised of a residential front door and front area motion alarm going off. Homeowner advised all was okay.

11:21 p.m. – Alarm company advised of a commercial burglary alarm going off. Deputies were advised. Keyholder advised it was a new employee who set it off and they are trying to get a manager to come and reset it. Deputies were advised.

Animal calls0
 Transport0
 Traffic0
 Papers served0
 Controlled burn0

FEBRUARY 8

6:59 a.m. – Reporting party advised the sign in the median on Highway 8 at Cozy Curve was down and there was debris in the road. Oklahoma Department of Transportation was advised.

7:45 a.m. – Reporting party advised of a stalled vehicle in the road in front of Sonic. Cherokee officer was advised. 7:56 a.m. Cherokee officer advised everything as okay, the vehicle was off the road.

8:52 a.m. – Reporting party advised her and a male individual are in a trailer dispute in which Helena officer had addressed. Reporting party advised she didn't want this individual on her property and would like an officer to come out and deal with it. Dispatch advised the reporting party that since it is in Helena that they would send Helena officer to handle the situation. Reporting party advised that Helena officer had advised it was a civil matter, it was over and no one was being hurt and the individual was no longer on the property. Helena officer advised that neither one could produce proof of ownership of the trailer. He also advised that the male party advised he had a bill of sale for the trailer, but couldn't find it. The male individual was advised by Helena officer that if he found it, to bring the bill of sale to a judge. 9:08 a.m. Helena officer advised he drove by the house before he left the county to make sure the male individual wasn't there and he wasn't. No one was at the residence at the moment. 10:07 a.m. Helena officer advised the male individual advised he would like to file a report on a stolen trailer. Dispatch was advised of the information. Deputy was advised. 11:10 a.m. Deputy advised after his investigation, it was found to be a civil matter.

3:10 p.m. – 911 call, reporting party advised of a grass fire that was out of control within 10 feet of the buildings. Cherokee Fire Department and Cherokee ambulance were advised. 3:42 p.m. Cherokee Fire Department advised the fire was out and they were heading back to the station. 3:42 p.m. Cherokee ambulance advised they were back at the station.

3:52 p.m. – Reporting party advised she would like extra patrol around her home because she will be out of town for a couple of weeks. Her daughter would be out taking care of the animals. She also advised she received a call about her doors on her property being open. Deputy was advised. 6:17 p.m. Deputy advised the house looked like someone had been in there, the glass on the door was broken and a set of keys were on the floor. 6:48 p.m. Deputy advised he was unable to make contact with the homeowner, but secured the door the best he could.

8:53 p.m. – 911 call, reporting party advised an ambulance was needed for a 49-year-old female who was having chest pains. Cherokee ambulance was advised. 9:17 p.m. Cherokee ambulance advised they were enroute to the hospital. 11:44 p.m. Cherokee ambulance advised they were back in the county.

Animal calls1
 Transport0
 Traffic8
 Papers served0
 Controlled burn1

ARENA EVENTS

ALFALFA COUNTY LIVESTOCK SHOW

FEB. 23RD-25TH

CROP PRICES

Tuesday Close

Wheat - $ 4.45

Corn - $ 3.61

Milo - $ 3.20

Soybean - $ 8.02

Farmers Cooperative

PO Box 100

Carmen, OK 73726

Open House for Skeleton Creek Wind Energy Center

An affiliate of NextEra Energy Resources is proposing to build a wind energy generation facility in Garfield, Alfalfa and Major Counties. Residents are invited to stop in, meet our team, and discuss the proposed project.

For additional information visit: www.SkeletonCreekProject.com

Thursday, Feb. 25

from 5 – 7 p.m.

Location:

Stride Bank Center

301 S. Independence Ave.

Enid, OK 73701