

In cases where computed scour depth is below depth of competent rock found through bridge soundings please use the following statement. [Scour will still be plotted and computed scour depths shown on plans]

*Foundation design based on depth to soundings tested to non- erodible rock and not on computed scour depths