Sincerely,
Brad Henry

My wife, Kim, and our daughters Leah, Laynie and Baylee join me in writing you to Oklahoma for America's number one celebration.

History and culture – as well as the nation's most diverse terrain. History and culture – as well as the nation's most diverse terrain. History and culture – as well as the nation's most diverse terrain.

The theme for our year-long celebration is "An Extraordinary Future" – reflects our hope, gratitude, pride and commitment as we greet the dawn of our second century. The character and spirit of Oklahoma shines as brightly in 2007 as it did in 1907. From our famous state to our charming rural towns, we welcome you to explore our diverse state.

For a spectacular celebration across the state, we have planned more than 400 events and activities throughout the year. In fact, the Oklahoma Centennial Celebration has been named the Top U.S. Event in 2007 by one of the most prestigious tourism organizations, the American Bus Association.

As we celebrate the centennial of our statehood, there is no better time to visit Oklahoma. The sun is shining brightly on our state as we mark this monumental milestone, and I hope you are taking part in the history-making festivities.

Governor & Mrs. Brad Henry with (l-r) Leah, Baylee & Laynie
